

TUCSON 2-DAY TRIP

1 DAY ONE

9:00 a.m. Stop By the Cup Cafe at Historic Hotel Congress

When it comes to a good Bloody Mary, it doesn't get much better than the award-winning build-your-own Bloody Mary bar at the Hotel Congress restaurant in downtown Tucson. Drawing in locals and visitors alike, the Cup's full bar, full-service dining room and plaza seating are always a hot spot. The potential wait on the weekends is worth it.

11:00 a.m. Wine Tasting at Charron Vineyard and Winery

Cheers! Here's to great Southwestern vineyards. Only a 30-minute drive from downtown Tucson, Charron Vineyards is one of southern Arizona's oldest. With a vineyard at more than 4,000 feet, it has the perfect conditions for growing incredible grapes. And if this adventure is up your alley, then we don't need to tell you what great grapes produce. But maybe you should have a taste for yourself.

2:30 p.m. Visit One of Five Archives of Ansel Adams at the Center for Creative Photography

The Center for Creative Photography, co-founded by famed American photographer Ansel Adams, celebrates the rich heritage of modern North American photography with a collection of fine-art photographs taken by a variety of artists, as well as rotating exhibitions and events. It is also one of only five archives of Adams' photographs.

5:00 p.m. Dine on Great Mexican Fare at Penca

After opening in March of 2013, Penca was quickly recognized as one of the "Best Bars in America" by Food & Wine Magazine for its selection of mezcals, tequilas and craft cocktails. The restaurant remains a prime Downtown Tucson destination that pleases the palate with Mexico City cuisine and an international bar. Get ready for your taste buds to dance.

6:30 p.m. Stay the Night in Tanque Verde Ranch

Coined as the “Best Dude Ranch in Arizona” by the Arizona Republic, the Tanque Verde Ranch is also one of the most distinctive resorts in Tucson. Traditional adobe walls and Santa Fe style architecture, paired with the beauty of the natural surroundings help make this a place you’ll want to mosey on back to.

2 DAY TWO

9:00 a.m. Golf One of Tucson’s Best Courses at Arizona National Golf Club

Tee it up for a great time! Designed by Robert Trent Jones Jr., Arizona National Golf Club is a favorite course among those who love the game. The picturesque course is fun to play as it winds through a beautiful desert landscape with views of the neighboring Santa Catalina Mountains and Coronado National Forest. And if your ball goes off course, consider it a good opportunity for a saguaro selfie.

4:00 p.m. Desert Hot Stone Massage at Hacienda Del Sol Spa

How’d the golf game treat you? Perhaps a hot stone massage at Hacienda Del Sol Spa is what the caddie ordered. And even if he didn’t, it’s still a great idea. There’s no better way to follow up 18 holes than with 90 minutes of pure relaxation—for you, and your muscles. The Desert Hot Stone Massage will help release toxins, reduce pain, and improve circulation among a myriad of other benefits.
